HARTZ BARN WINES

South Australia

Established in 1997, our Hartz Barn Wines family vineyard in the village of Moculta, Eden Valley, Barossa region of South Australia is the birthplace of our handcrafted wines. The home of Hartz Barn Wines, the Moculta General Store, was built in 1865 and the activities that have taken place at the store are recalled on our wine labels. Mindful of this heritage we carefully create and nurture our wines for your enjoyment with family, friends and good food.

Hartz Barn Wines “Dennistone Vineyard” is planted on phylloxera resistant grape vine rootstock’s with the varietal clones being selected to produce premium wines that are full flavoured, balanced and distinctly display their Eden Valley, Barossa heritage. Our vineyard is planted to Merlot, Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Riesling, Chardonnay and Lagrein.

Located 70 minutes north of Adelaide in Moculta, deep in the heart of South Australia’s premier wine growing region. Call and make your appointment to visit our Dennistone Vineyard and taste the sunshine in our handcrafted wines.
